JERRY YUKE '61

Jerry Yuke won the Sacramento City Junior Golf Championship his junior year at Brothers. He placed second as a senior in that same City Junior Championship. Yuke went on to Sacramento State where he was the #1 golfer on the golf team as a freshman.

In 1963, at 20 years old, he made an unlikely run as the local hope to the semifinals of the U.S. Amateur Public Links at Haggin Oaks. 'The Publinx', as it was called, was a championship for golfers who played on public courses. As one of 10 United States Golf Association individual championships, it carried great national prestige. Yuke lost to eventual winner and multiple PGA Tour winner Bob Lunn 3 and 1 in a 36-hole semifinal match.

Later in 1963, he was paired with Johnny Miller on the first day of the California State Fair Golf tournament. Jerry Yuke shot a 72, and Johnny Miller shot a 73. On that day in September 1963, Jerry Yuke beat Johnny Miller.
