Bahai Club	Mr. Guro and Mr. Wotawa	Bahai Club is a space where individuals from all faith backgrounds can come together and learn about the Bahai faith (a fairly new religion), and the teachings it offers. Some of the teachings are the oneness of all religions, equality of men and women, elimination of prejudice, and the unity of science and religion. This club in no way meant to convert individuals, but rather is focused on giving people a better understanding of their own religions so that they can grow firmer in their faith towards God. This club will encourage individuals to partake in an individual investigation of truth, where they can build a love and passion for their own faith and truth. This club hopes to bring individuals together in a spirit of inclusive community so we can embrace the beauty that all religions have, and how enmity towards other peoples beliefs is not just because all religions come from the same one true God.	Thursdays: 3 o'clock biweekly (all is subject to change based on peoples availability) Room 205

Baking Club	Ms. Herrera	The Baking Club bakes sweet treats for different groups around the Christian Brothers community. This includes, but is not limited to, teachers, firefighters, and CB families. We bake the treats, package them up with love, and attach cards expressing our gratitude or warm messages, like a holiday's greeting. We love to bake, we love to give back to our community, and we love to make new friendships through our sweet treats.	Tuesday mornings, or late start Friday mornings. Living room and kitchens.
Bible Study	Ms. Jones	This club is most associated with faith in the presence of God. We gather once a week to talk about the word of God. This club has helped build community and strengthen our love for God!	Friday during the first 15 minutes of all school lunch in room 402

We mainly participate in facilitated discussions of personal experiences, what we would like to see change, and how we can make that change happen. DISC follows the Lasallian core principles of Quality Education and Inclusive Community. We strive to educate people about others to create understanding, respect, and connection.	Tuesday 8:30 - 9:30 am, Bertram Hall
Dress To Impress (DTI)	Dr. Iliff	This club is about a game on Roblox about fashion. Students join a game and dress as an assigned theme. Whoever gets the most stars/votes for their outfit wins, with the aim to earn stars to then buy more clothes and accessories. This club will meet to play the game and have a fun time. At times, we will select a theme and for members to bring that outfit to school to bring the game to life. Theme examples include super heroes, beach, snow day etc.	Once or twice a month, all school lunch, room 303
Engineering Club	Ms. Thayer	The goal of this club is to help engage students in what the STEM field (especially engineering) might hold for their future careers, and also to teach how impactful engineering is on our day-to-day lives. We exemplify the core principle of Respect for all Persons through our emphasis on helping bring more women and people of color into the field of engineering.	After school on Tuesday for half an hour, room 507
Fashion For a Focus	Ms. Maldonado	The purpose of this club is to host a few clothing sales throughout the school year. We will organize, plan, and sort through donations throughout our meetings. We would also run and organize a student voting system to help choose which charity the proceeds will go to for each sale.	Thursdays after school at 3:10

Flower Bonds	Mr. Sunderman	We are a club that is dedicated to making people happy. We are a crochet club that makes flower bouquets for those who wish to make someone's day special. We make sure to be inclusive to all members by being open to those looking for a new hobby, those who want to build their skills in crocheting, or those who want to form new connections with others.	Still deciding, but here are our current ideas: Wednesdays and Fridays after school every week or every two weeks, or Wednesdays after school every week.
Food for Thought	Mr. Keeney	Our club will exhibit the Lasallian principles of Respect for all Persons by having students learn and experience different cultures through the culinary arts.
